

I am against the FCC from repealing cross ownership rules because I do not believe that it is in the public interest to do so.

I believe that it would lead to the manipulation of the news instead of reporting the facts.

In fact, it would become a news system much like the former communistic system in Russia when there was only one news source, Pravda.